100 COMPUTER USE AND INTERNET POLICY

The Internet is an important resource for the Archdiocese to provide better, cheaper, and faster services. The Archdiocese will creatively use the Internet to improve services and contribute broadly to the mission of the Church. The connection to the Internet and related services, communication channels, and computing tools provided by the Archdiocese (the "Internet Services") exist to facilitate the official work of the Archdiocese.The Internet Services are provided for employees and authorized persons affiliated with the Archdiocese for the efficient exchange of information and the completion of assigned responsibilities consistent with the mission of the Archdiocese. The use of the Internet Services by any employee or other person authorized by the Archdiocese (the "Users") must be consistent with this Policy (including all security and confidentiality provisions set forth herein) and any other Archdiocesan conduct policy, including the Code of Conduct and Harassment policy.
